Arizona State Board of Cosmetology Position Paper. The Agency appears to be receiving more and more questions o new procedures and machines used in the practice of, especially, aesthetics. We neither approve nor recommend any procedure and/or machine. Further, Arizona has NO such thing as a Medical Aesthetician. All responsibility for machines or procedures falls to the licensee. Refer to: (1) A.R.S. 32-501 (1), (2), (5), and (6) - definitions or aesthetician or cosmetologist which states that they may practice skin care by "Massaging, cleansing, stimulating, manipulating, exercising, beautifying or applying oils, creams, antiseptics, clays, lotions or other preparations, either by hand or by mechanical or electrical appliances. Arching eyebrows or tinting eyebrows and eyelashes. Removing superfluous hair by means other than electrolysis." (2) A.A.C. R-4-10-112 (p) – derma plane procedures, blades, knives, lancets, and any tool that invades the skin shall not be used in a salon or school. Chemical peels...2% phenol and 37 to 40% neutralized glycolic acid may be used. This board may take disciplinary action or refuse to issue a license for any of the following causes: Malpractice or incompetence. (Under these laws, a licensee could be disciplined if someone is harmed.) ASIDE: In other words, an aesthetician, working under her own license in a licensed salon may only do what an aesthetician may do. However, if the licensee is working in a licensed salon in a doctor's office, she can do what she can do under her own license while not under the doctor's direct supervision, and then under the doctor's direct supervision; (i.e., while the doctor is in the building,) and with it posted that these services are not regulated by this Board, do additional services. This practice then (probably) becomes regulated by BOMEX. If a complaint were received under the latter conditions, this Board would certainly additionally, while practicing as a licensed aesthetician and doing procedures covered by this Board; the licensee must be working in a licensed salon.
